Yellowwood Students Plant Garden at UNC Cabrini Apartments

Vegetables and flowers will soon be in bloom at United Neighborhood Centers' Cabrini Apartments thanks to students from Scranton School District's Yellowwood Program. The students recently dug a bed for the garden as a service project for the Learn and Serve for America program which allows students to conduct projects at various non-profits in their community. Pictured digging the garden are Yellowwood students (back row, l-r) Michelle Converse, Sarah Hahn, Tara Dolan, Robert Wolenski, and Nick Hughes; (front row, l-r) Colleen Mitchell,

About United Neighborhood Centers of NEPA

United Neighborhood Centers of Northeastern Pennsylvania is a private, not-for-profit, grass-roots United Way agency that offers direct and general advocacy services for youth, singles, families and senior citizens in combination with programs that foster independence and self-sufficiency. The agency's mission is to work together with neighbors to provide services and create opportunities which empower individuals and build strong interdependent communities.
