

United Neighborhood Centers of Northeastern Pennsylvania

www.uncnepa.org

Contact:

Julianne Kalasinski
Communications Director
(570) 346-0759 Ext. 104
jkalasinski@uncnepa.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 20, 2008

Gannon Elected as UNC Board President

Scranton, PA – Sister Margaret Gannon, IHM, Ph.D. has recently been elected President of United Neighborhood Centers of Northeastern Pennsylvania’s Board of Directors. Sister Margaret has been a UNC board member since 2003.

A professor of history at Marywood University, Sister Margaret is also the Coordinator of Cooperative grant on Women’s History in Northeastern Pennsylvania; chair of the social science department; and is a member of the policy committee.

She also serves on several committees including, Lackawanna County’s Cultural Plan Advisory Committee, and Lackawanna Heritage Valley Authority’s Education Council. She also is actively involved in African Sisters Education Collaborative Board.

She received her A.B. from Marywood University, and her M.A. and Ph.D. from St. John’s University. Sister Gannon has published numerous articles and publications; made worldwide presentations; and received various local and national awards for her work and volunteerism.

###